Serie II : Bazar Collection

In 1855, the fashion magazine Der Bazar started in Germany. Soon many countries followed with an edition, sometimes under a different name.

The magazine was published in Russia, Czechoslovakia, the Netherlands (Gracieuse), France (La Mode Illustree), and Spain (la Moda Elegante).

All these now have been digitized and are available online at the sites of various libraries.

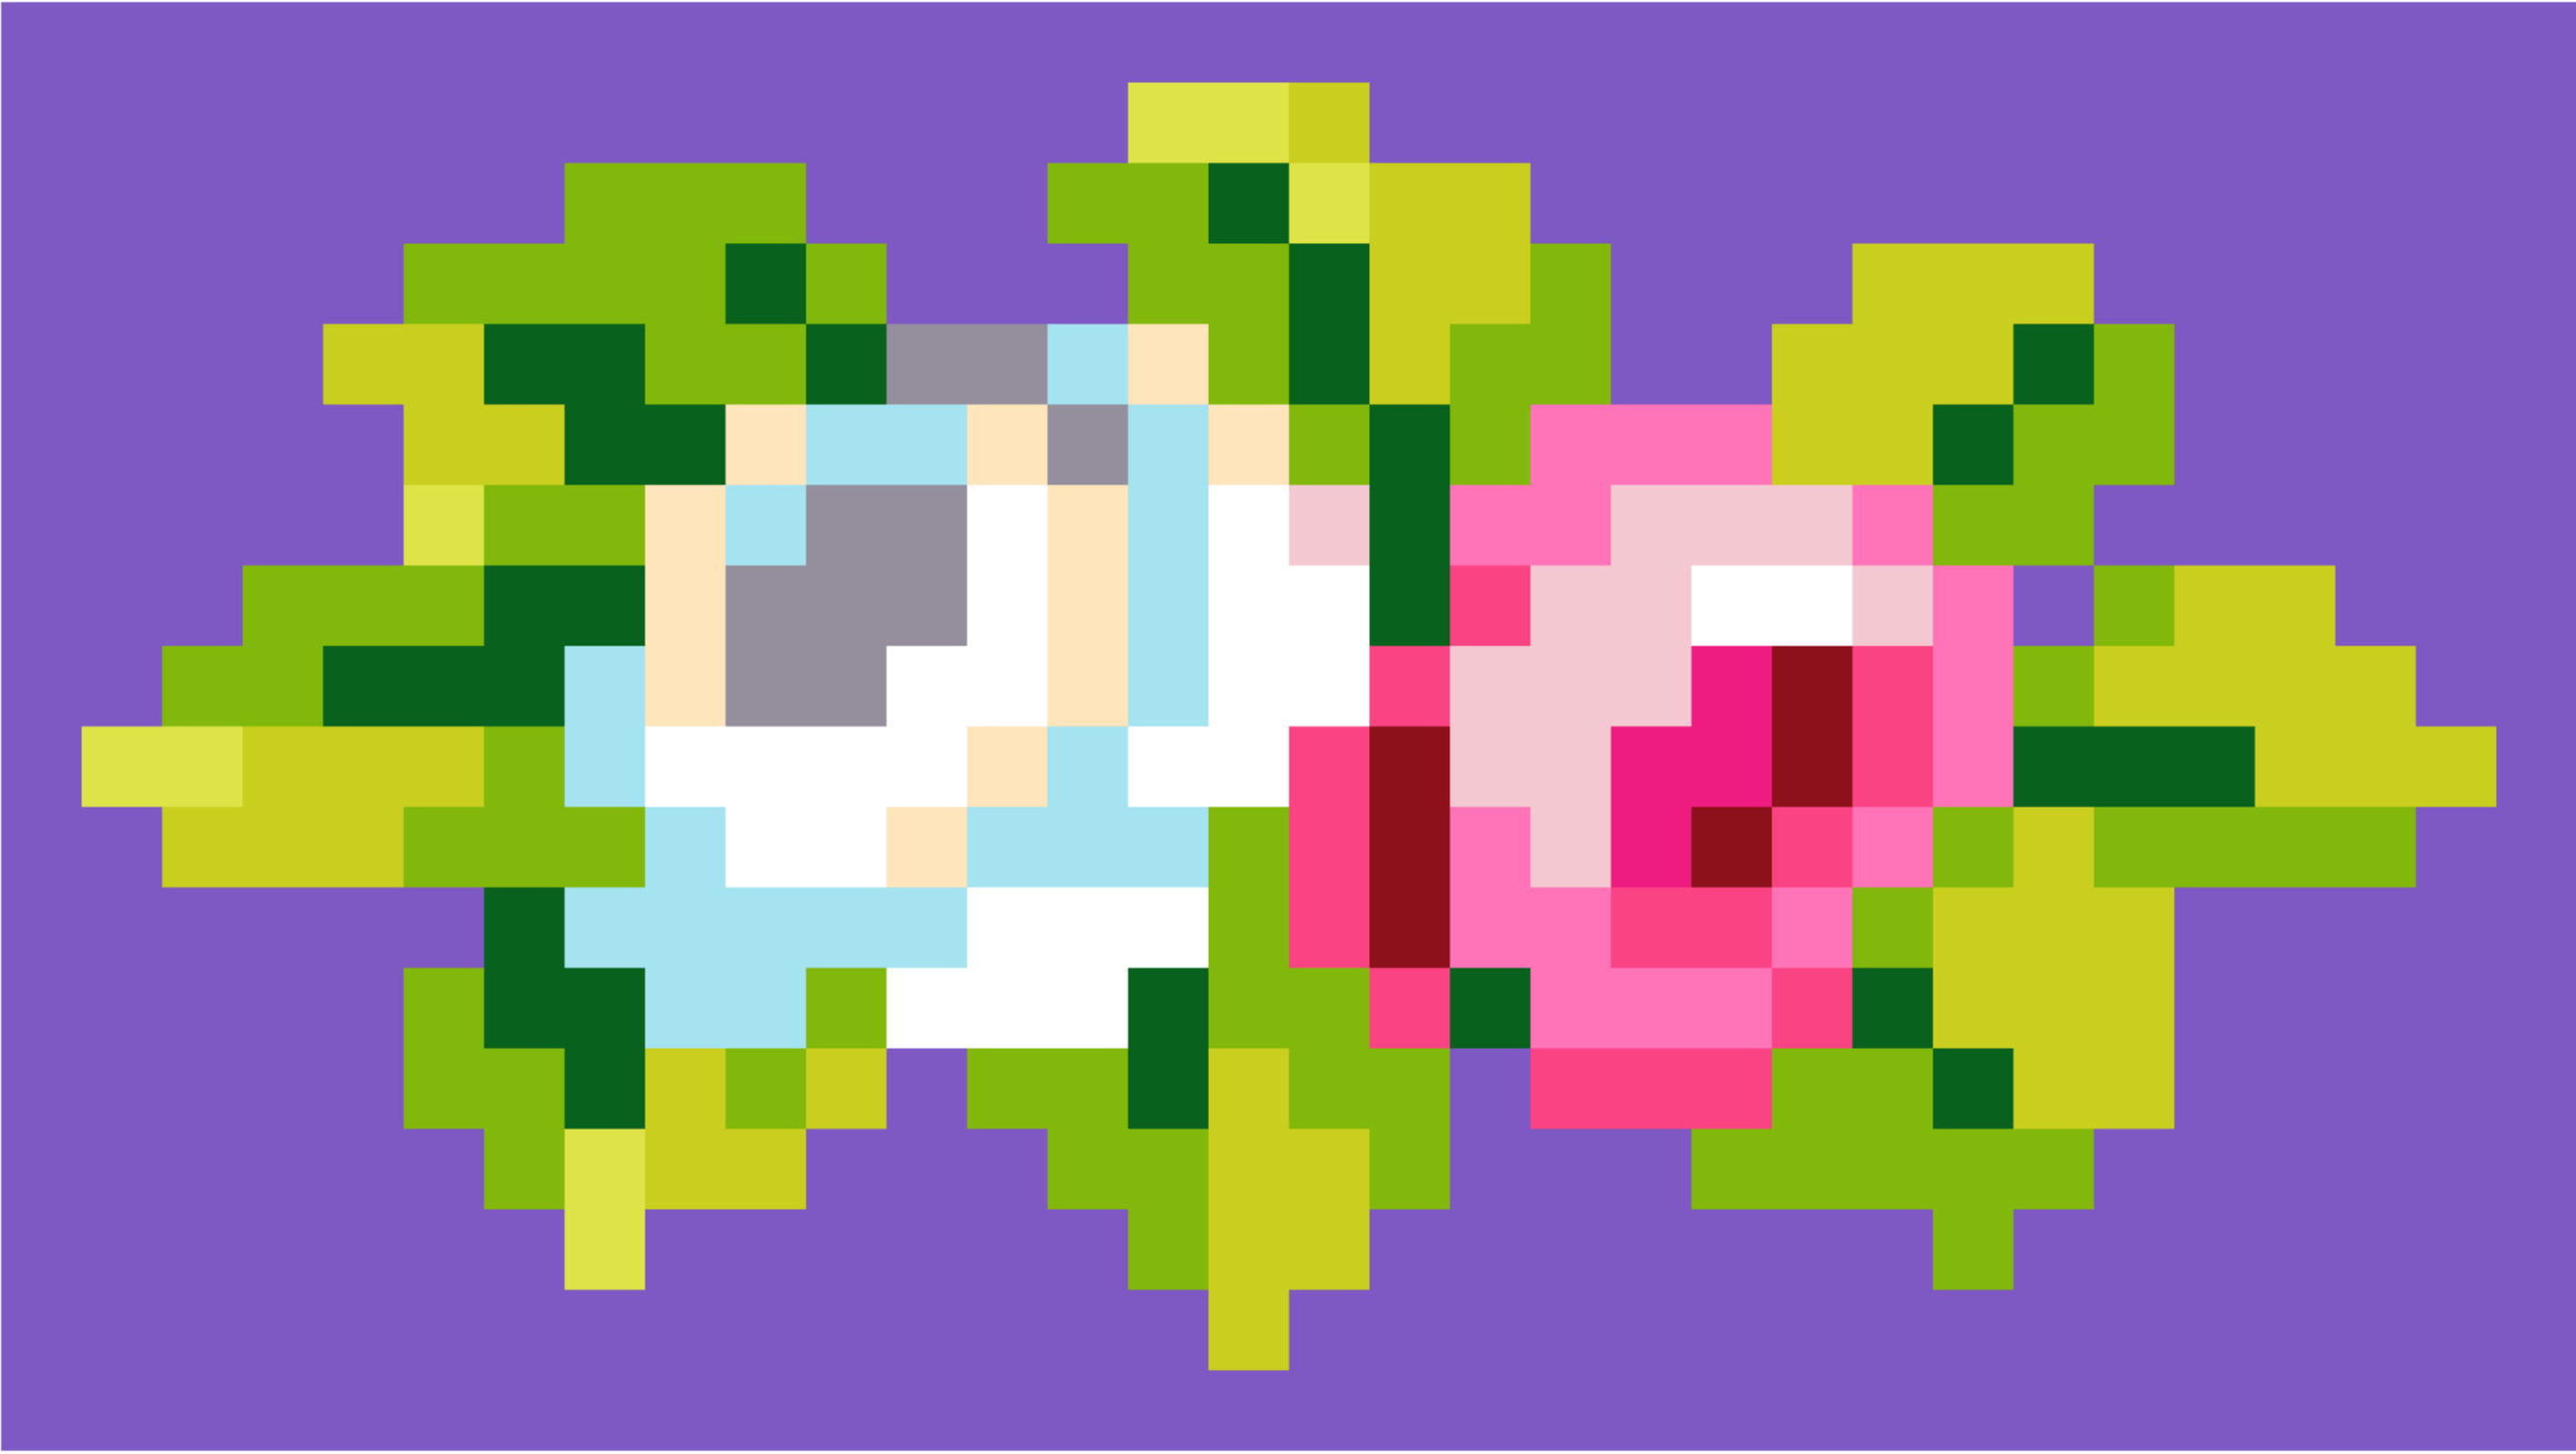

Besides fashion there was a fair share of needlework in the magazine. The many symbol charts for cross stitch are now in this collection.

At the time, there were no coloured examples of what the patterns would look like. In this publication all the patterns are coloured using the directions that accompanied the original ones. Also added are some filet charts, darned netting then, that can be used for filet crochet.

Enjoy stitching these patterns, or just looking at them!

A 30x30 grid of squares. The grid is composed of 900 squares. The squares are colored in various shades of gray, ranging from white to black. The pattern is complex and non-uniform, with some squares having black outlines and others being solid gray. The pattern appears to be a combination of random noise and some structured elements, possibly representing a data visualization or a complex pattern. The grid is divided into four quadrants by a vertical line at column 15 and a horizontal line at row 15. The top-left quadrant (columns 1-15, rows 1-15) is mostly white with some gray squares. The top-right quadrant (columns 16-30, rows 1-15) is mostly white with some gray squares. The bottom-left quadrant (columns 1-15, rows 16-30) is mostly white with some gray squares. The bottom-right quadrant (columns 16-30, rows 16-30) is mostly white with some gray squares. The overall pattern is a complex, non-uniform distribution of gray and white squares, with some squares having black outlines.
